MAKING STAKEHOLDERS ACTORS OF CHANGE

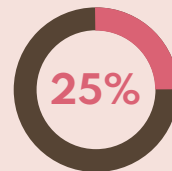

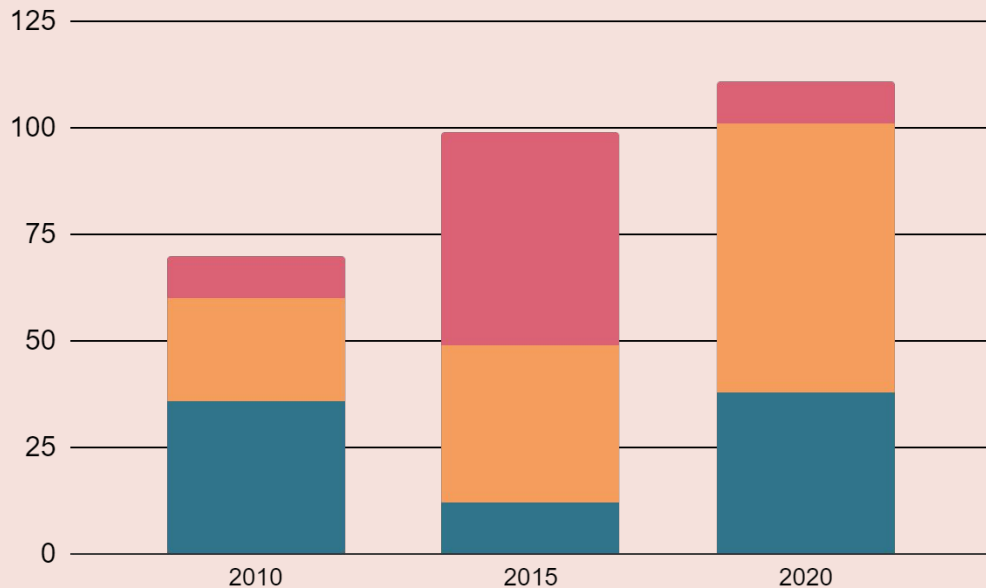

To make a real impact on making sure animals are provided an environment where they can feel loved, we worked with animal care workers and animal adopters to ensure this important change was coming from a place of collaboration.

In Spring 2023, we created an app that fundamentally changed the way animal shelters and animal adopters interact in this world of technology, making the animal adoption process more convenient.

The Pawfect Match puts together a group of students who deeply care about animals and wanted true change in animal care and adoption. During nine sessions, stakeholders discussed their experiences with animals, animals' behaviors, and their interactions with people., so that we could draft guidelines for the whole industry.

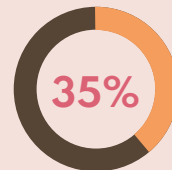

We hope to implement the interface with our stakeholders and launch pilot schemes to test the ideation. And hey, maybe one day we'll see every animal and person be like two peas in a pod ...
